

Please do not change the Indiana No Call List Law. It has been a blessing. I use to average 10-12 calls and evening from telemarketers and now I have peace, quiet, and no hasseling phone calls. It is one of the greatest laws ever that actually does something that most of the general public actually wants.